JAKE JOHNSON FOR CONGRESS

AFSCME MEMBERS ENDORSED JAKE JOHNSON FOR U.S. CONGRESS BECAUSE HE WILL FIGHT TO MAKE LIFE EASIER AND MORE AFFORDABLE FOR WORKING PEOPLE.

Jake Johnson knows the power of a union because he's lived it. As a union teacher, he's fought for better contracts for his fellow members and won. Now, he's ready to fight for ALL working families in Washington. HE HAS A PLAN TO:

- Lower prices on essentials like groceries and gas by ending reckless tariffs.
- Protect Social Security, Medicare and veterans benefits, and undo the cuts to Medicaid and SNAP.
- Hold health insurance companies that keep raising costs accountable while rejecting their corporate PAC money.

MATT LITTLE FOR CONGRESS

AFSCME MEMBERS ENDORSED MATT LITTLE FOR U.S. CONGRESS BECAUSE HE WILL FIGHT TO MAKE LIFE EASIER AND MORE AFFORDABLE FOR WORKING PEOPLE.

Matt Little has already sued the big insurance companies for exploiting our community, and won. Now, he's ready to fight for ALL working families in Washington. HE HAS A PLAN TO:

- Bring down costs by fighting for a tax code that promotes fairness and opportunity for working people, small businesses, and family farms.
- Lower costs for child care.
- Bring down health care costs by standing up to insurance companies and fighting for Medicare for All.

PEGGY FLANAGAN FOR U.S. SENATE

AFSCME MEMBERS ENDORSED PEGGY FLANAGAN FOR U.S. SENATE BECAUSE SHE WILL FIGHT TO MAKE LIFE EASIER AND MORE AFFORDABLE FOR WORKING PEOPLE.

Raised by a single mom, Peggy's family got by on hard work and support from their community and public programs. As Lieutenant Governor, she made sure other families got that same help — delivering paid family and medical leave for workers. SHE HAS A PLAN TO:

- Lower drug costs.
- Crack down on corporate landlords.
- Get corporate money out of politics.
